The South Dakota Office of Tourism is pleased to partner with the South Dakota Golf Association to produce the first-ever comprehensive guide to golf courses in South Dakota. All public, private and semi-private courses were offered a free listing in this guide. Only basic information is listed for courses that did not reply. Larger listing space was available for purchase for a nominal fee. Images that accompany the purchased spaces were provided by the properties in most cases. Cover images and other images throughout the guide were provided by the South Dakota Office of Tourism. Listings are divided into four tourism regions.

Welcome

Fellow Golfers:

Welcome to the state of South Dakota, our home where we enjoy Great Faces, Great Places and infinite variety.

In South Dakota, you can lose yourself in the vast prairies of the east, trek back in time with a hike along the Lewis and Clark Trail, or be captivated by the faces carved in stone at Mount Rushmore National Memorial and Crazy Horse Memorial.

Or, as many who explore South Dakota have discovered, you can find yourself in awe of the magnificent natural terrain on our golf courses that have become increasingly enticing to our visitors.

Golf is one of my favorite pastimes, and South Dakota offers a wide variety of courses to suit you on your next getaway. These courses, which vary in difficulty, are located all across our great state. Very reasonable green fees, wide open tee times, and friendly faces will surely make your South Dakota golf experience a great one.

Our golf courses are joining the great attractions, people, festivals, events, and outdoor activities in stealing the hearts and minds of South Dakota travelers and residents alike. Plan to stay an extra day or two and find out what others have discovered about South Dakota golf. You'll enjoy the new adventure.

Once again, I welcome you to South Dakota. Enjoy our beautiful scenery, world-class hospitality and, of course, our great golf courses. Make this visit with us one that you will remember and repeat many times. We'll see you on the links!

Sincerely,

Mike Rounds
Governor

Golf Enthusiasts:

Those of us whose job it is to promote golf in South Dakota say we are second to no one when it comes to quality, quantity, affordability and variety. And we know that once you bring your game to any of our wonderful courses, you will agree.

Variety describes South Dakota golf. Your options are limitless. From the mountains to the plains, you'll find a golf course that is sure to test your game and delight your eye. But more importantly, our courses will leave you craving more.

We are so proud of what we have to offer and are glad you came to visit. The people are what make South Dakota such a great place to live, work and play.

Thank you for choosing South Dakota to play your golf. Come back any time because you are always welcome. But please do us a favor. Bring some friends along so they, too, can experience what we have here in our great state.

Sincerely,

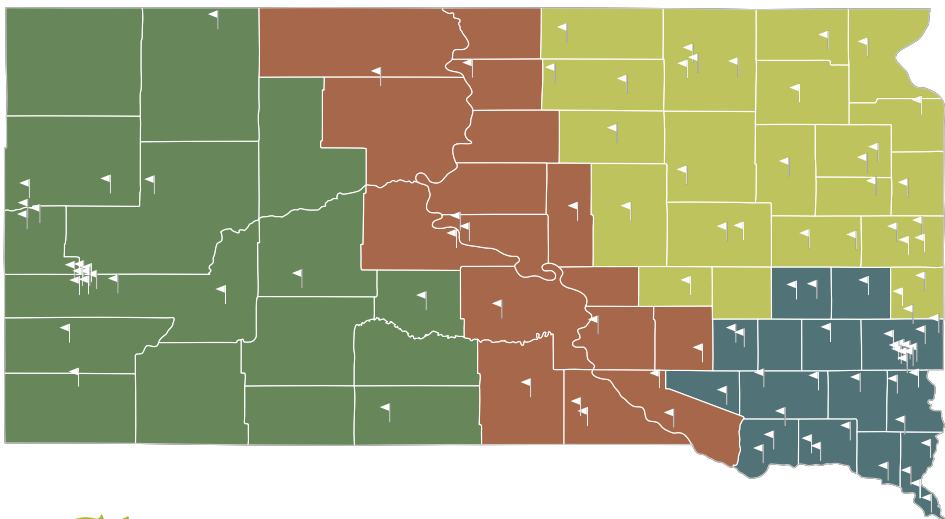

Wade H. Merry

Regions

- Badlands & Lakes
- Great Lakes
- Glacial Lakes & Prairies
- Southeast

South Dakota is divided into four tourism regions. They are the Southeast Region, the Glacial Lakes & Prairies Region, the Great Lakes Region and the Black Hills, Badlands & Lakes Region. Courses are listed alphabetically, by course name, within their respective regions.

Climate

Fall	Comfortable warm weather through September and crisp cool nights into November make fall an excellent time to golf in South Dakota.	Summer	Warm (sometimes hot) days and mild nights are the norm, mid-June through mid-September.
Winter	While temperatures may be wintry, cold spells usually alternate with milder weather. Snowfall is prevalent.	Spring	Mostly sunny days, but this can be the rainy season. Spring snow showers are a possibility through early May, but it's not unusual to see activity on golf courses during late winter/early spring months.

South Dakota's southeast region is teeming with everything needed to create a beautiful golf course: meandering rivers, jagged river bluffs, rolling hills, wooded dunes and waving grasses. From newer courses designed with a challenge in mind, to a course designed by golf legend Arnold Palmer, this region boasts 39 courses that offer both breathtaking scenery and awe-inspiring golf.

Located on the east side of Mitchell, the earliest recollection of the golf course dates back to the 1920s when Mitchell businessmen started the Mitchell Country Club. Today, Wild Oak offers some of the most challenging and scenic golf in eastern South Dakota with the creek coming into play on five holes. Putting green, chipping area, driving range, pro shop, banquet facilities, full bar.

Known as the prairie pot-hole region, this area of South Dakota is dotted with serene lakes and 29 beautiful, quiet golf courses.

Golf lovers won't want to miss their chance to unwind on a wide-open course that offers both a challenge and tranquility. The only thing getting in your way will be the bunkers.

Nestled against foothills of ponderosa pine, Hart Ranch Golf Course is a treat for any golfer. Six sets of tees accommodate all levels from scratch player to weekend warrior. Hart Ranch annually assists charitable organizations in fund-raising efforts, conventioners organizing golf escapes and competitive events at both the state and local levels. The staff has set a local standard for service and professionalism by providing the finest in recreational entertainment. One round of golf at Hart Ranch explains the high rating in Golf Digest magazine's "Places to Play."

Unique to the area is their PGA Family Course Program which uses Family Tee plates to establish a beginner-friendly short course within the existing golf facility. For golfers of all ages and all ability levels, a golf trip to the Black Hills area is not complete without playing a round at Hart Ranch Golf Course. Designed by Patrick H. Wyss. Pro shop, snack bar, putting green, chipping area, driving range. Opened in 1985.
